Selected track	Benefits and pitfalls of implementing blended learning in the Algerian university
Title of paper	Blended Learning's Benefits and Pitfalls in the Algerian University
Abstract (Max 300 words)	Blended learning is the new trend in the Algerian university due to the effects of Covid-19. Technology has invaded all aspects of life, so it is no surprise that we come to depend on it to fulfill pedagogical objectives. Blended-learning is a method that combines e-learning and learning in class. This method's objective is reducing face-to-face classrooms and adopting remote learning through virtual classrooms. Taking into consideration the Algerian situation, and the different types of learners, blended learning method can be both a blessing and a curse. In an attempt to understand the challenges of this method and its effectiveness, this paper will discuss the benefits and pitfalls of implementing blended learning in the Algerian university.
Keywords (Max 5 words)	Blended-learning, Algerian university, benefits, pitfalls.
